We just have to admit: the police office of Heatherfield makes people a little nervous!
POLITIEBUREAU
Though it's just a peaceful place... A bit too peaceful to some people.
Hello, Irma! Y...Yes, he's here, b...but he's quite b...busy!
Hi, Rose! Is my father here?
B...but do you notice something s...special about m...me?
People like Irma love to have some excitement. Today there will be enough excitement at her father's workplace.
Oh, that's good! Were you talking about a raid?
Hmm... not that I know of... But can you give these papers to my father? He asked me to deliver them!
Mark Zibosky and his f...friends! T...twelve arrests! An illegal gambling house!
F...follow me then! It's a b...bit chaotic over here b...because of the raid near the docks th...this morning!
I b...bought a b...book about s...self-confidence! It really w...works!
I d...decided not to be shy any longer, you k...know?

Look out! He wants to escape!
Get aside!
Hey, brute!
HUH?
Don't you see there are ladies here?
Oof!
TUMP
Ouch! Get her off of me! She's breaking my arm!
Wow! Thank you, Rose!
Y...you're welcome, Phil!
D...did you see that? Phil thanked me and I answered him!
It w...works, I told you! That book w...works!
Heehee!

Hello, sweetheart! do you bring me the papers I asked your mother for?
Yes, dad! I...
Tom! We have another one who plays it hard!
Yes, yes, I'm coming!
What a day! Rose, would you give Irma some company?
Of c...course! B...but don't you need any help?
You can go! I believe they will need you for sure!
Th...thank you, darling! Sit down! I'm r...right b...back!

Er... are you thirsty?
A beaker of water! Only YOU can give me that in this situation!
A beaker of water from the Queen of water!
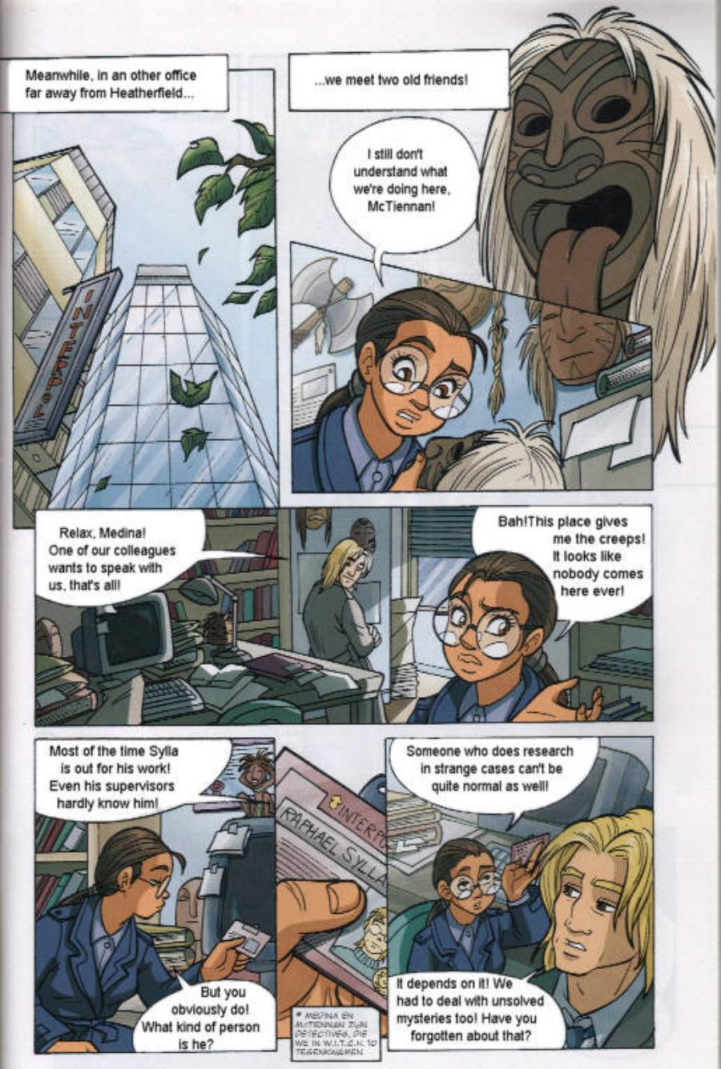
FRUUSSHHH

What do you say? I don't understand what you mean...
Of course you do! If you really want to do it, you can release me!
I'm sorry! I really can't do that!
Yes, you can! You have the powers to do it, whithout any doubt...
...and I'm not talking about these handcuffs!
Come on, friend! Let's fill in some paperwork!



Meanwhile, in an other office far away from Heatherfield...
...we meet two old friends!
I still don't understand what we're doing here, McTiennan!
Relax, Medina! One of our colleagues wants to speak with us, that's all!
Bah! This place gives me the creeps! It looks like nobody comes here ever!
Most of the time Sylla is out for his work! Even his supervisors hardly know him!
But you obviously do! What kind of person is he?
RAPHAEL SYLLA
* MEDINA EN MCTIENNAN ZIJN DETECTIVES, DE WE IN W.I.T.C.H. TEGENKOMEN.
Someone who does research in strange cases can't be quite normal as well!
It depends on it! We had to deal with unsolved mysteries too! Have you forgotten about that?

Are you talking about the disappearance of that girl in Heatherfield? That Elyon Brown...
That case is closed! But watch the dossier on the desk!
Will Vandom! Cornelia Hale! Hay Lin! Irma! Taranee... What does this mean?
What I know about is that he discovered a report from a sure inspector Hamilton...
It looks Sylla is gathering information about them...
"That policeman wrote about strange happenings which took place at the coast near Green Bay..."
* DAT WAS TE LEZEN IN W.I.T.C.H. 30.
And guess what names were mentioned as witnesses?
You get it! That's why Sylla called for us! He has read our reports...
...and wants to know something more about them!
Don't tell me! Our dear teenagers were on vacation out there?

Those girls are hiding something, don't you think, McTiernan?
Ralph!
Joel! Nice to see you again! And this must be Maria Medina then!
Something wrong, colleague?
Er... well... I've heard so much about you, but I never imagined that you're looking so... so...
So fascinating, handsome and moviestar-like?
No! The word I was looking for is FILTHY!
Meanwhile, at the police station in Heatherfield...
SEE you, mr. policeman!

Dad! Did that man threaten you or not?
Mark Zibosky barks but never bites! Let's talk about something different!
Good! Like... what are we doing here?
We're waiting for company! Look! There he is!
H...he's yours, T...Tom! And... c...can I get a ride?
Of course, Rose! Irma, you don't mind to sit into the back next to mister Jewell?
Er... is that the old man with the handcuffs?
Don't worry! There was some confusion during the raid...
...but obviously Jewell was a victim of Zibosky and no accomplice!
Poor man! The crooks locked him up in a cold, dark basement!
Indeed! They told he's a kind of fortune teller! Imagine that!

He doesn't say much, but he looks a nice man to me! I think he's homeless!
Therefore we bring him to the reception centre! That's on our way home!
Er... Hello! Here I am again!
Rose! Have I given you my compliments about how you ruled out those three men at the station?
CLUD
Oh... Just a c...case of administration!
Don't be so modest, you were great! Philip Sheppard was really impressed!
P...Philip? Come on! You only say t...that because you k...know I like him!
No, it's true! Didn't you mention a book about self defense?
No, about self-confidence! Do you w...want to k...know more of it? let's s...see...
W...well, the first chapter s...says...
What's wrong with me?

Somehow that man makes me nervous, but I have the feeling I know him! He has something familiar...
He looks strange for a bit, but his look is so...
...deep!
Like the sea!
Huh? What?
Can you borrow me that red pen in your inside pocket for a moment?
Er... Of course! I've got one here in my...
...inside pocket...
No! This can't be! How did he know that...

Imagine he's a real predictor? I mean... It's possible, though? I've seen stranger things!
I can put him to the test! All girls have a boyfriend! I could ask him if I would...
I'm sorry, but I only do short-term predictions! I can't look that far into the future!
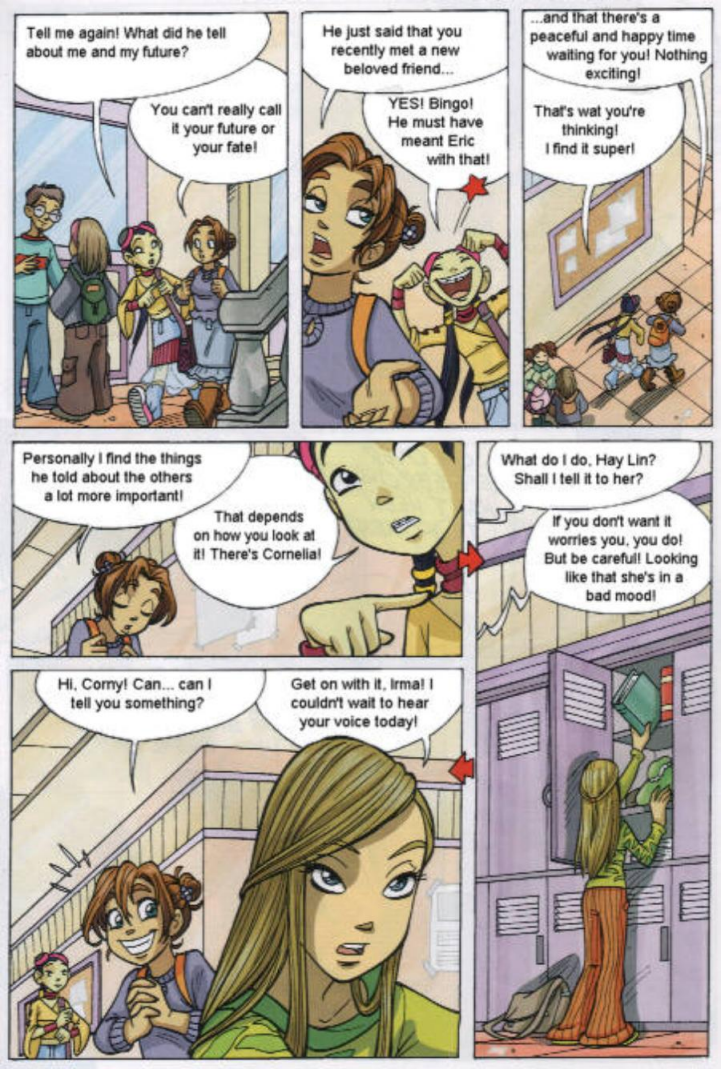
But how... how can you...
I... I said nothing at all!
For the moment I only can tell your fate is closely connected to those of your friends!
Listen! Some friends have problems, and you are closely connected to each other...
...you first have to help them if you want to help yourself!

At the Sheffield Institute it's not unusual to hear this voice during the break...
Am I clear?
The principal of the school, mrs. Knickerbocker, often shouts, though it's at pupils...
I don't tolerate fights at my school!
But sometimes she makes an exception and then the teachers get her voice against them!
All right then! But Collins has to apologize at once then!
What? Forget it!
Gentlemen, please...
Don't you realize that you're fighting about something futile?
We're quarrelling about an unfilled lesson hour which I don't intend to take care for!
Come on, O'Neill! Those kids prefer an extra gym lesson above history!
So! Do you hear that?

And you, miss Kelly? Are you available?
Absolutely not! I've got my hands full with planning the play roster for the next three months!
Miss Warton?
Sorry, I've got an extra drawing lesson with the fifth grade pupils to practice still lives!
The case is that we can't keep replacing mr. Bottlom!
The informatics teacher always has a good excuse for his absence!
Ah, yes! Thanks to home-written doctor's notes and other ridiculous poor excuses!
Do you know that much pupils never have seen his face?
I personally take care that this unpleasant situation will be solved as soon as possible!
In the meantime you fill in that empty lesson hour, mister Collins!

It looks to be a schoolday full with tension...
...and the consequences of an extra history lesson are soon to be noticed...
Come on, Irma! Sooner or later Collins would pick you out! You could have known that!
Tell my father about it! With this flunk I've got I'm risking to be grounded for life!
It's forbidden of course, but why didn't you decide to let him ask the question you wish by yourself?
Oh yes! I close my eyes, cross my hands and the teacher asks me what I want him to!
Don't you think I tried that, Hay Lin? I just couldn't concentrate!
You're still thinking about that strange old man, don't you?
You don't say anything to the others, will you?
I promised you that! My lips are sealed!
Okay then! That's because Jewell made me promise not to tell it to anyone!
It's good to know that secrets are safe with you!



Tell me again! What did he tell about me and my future?
You can't really call it your future or your fate!
He just said that you recently met a new beloved friend...
YES! Bingo! He must have meant Eric with that!
...and that there's a peaceful and happy time waiting for you! Nothing exciting!
That's wat you're thinking! I find it super!
Personally I find the things he told about the others a lot more important!
That depends on how you look at it! There's Cornelia!
What do I do, Hay Lin? Shall I tell it to her?
If you don't want it worries you, you do! But be careful! Looking like that she's in a bad mood!
Hi, Corny! Can... can I tell you something?
Get on with it, Irma! I couldn't wait to hear your voice today!

Well... er... I think you should start skating again!
I beg your pardon, but what do you know about that? You've never seen me skating!
Er... the case is... it's the only way to... to...
...To overcome your broken heart!
So, I'm finished!
Good! Now I'll tell you something!
SBAM
Whenever I decide to talk about Caleb with someone, it won't be you for sure! Understood?

My compliments! I know elephants with more tact than you have!
I don't know why, but I really believe what Jewell told me!
Who's that Jewell? Someone I should know of?
Huh? Er... hi, Will! No, no one! No one at all!
Have you seen Cornelia? She was here a few moments ago!
Yes! But now you're here... Can I speak you for a moment?
In private, if you don't mind! It's quite sensitive, you know, and it's about you!
Oh-oh! Here we go again!
It's about Matt, eh? You surely were gossipping abut us!
Huh? No, no, we...

If you really want to know it... He even doesn't talk to me anymore!
He still must be angry about what I've said about Mandy Anderson!*
* Read Witch 24 to refresh your memory.
Don't get angry with me, but I think he's not entirely wrong!
I know! It was incredibly stupid of me! I won't forgive myself for it!
But I didn't want to talk about that!
Huh? Are you serious?
It wouldn't get the idea to put my nose in your business!
Oh, sorry then! Well... tell me, what is it?
It's about your FATHER!

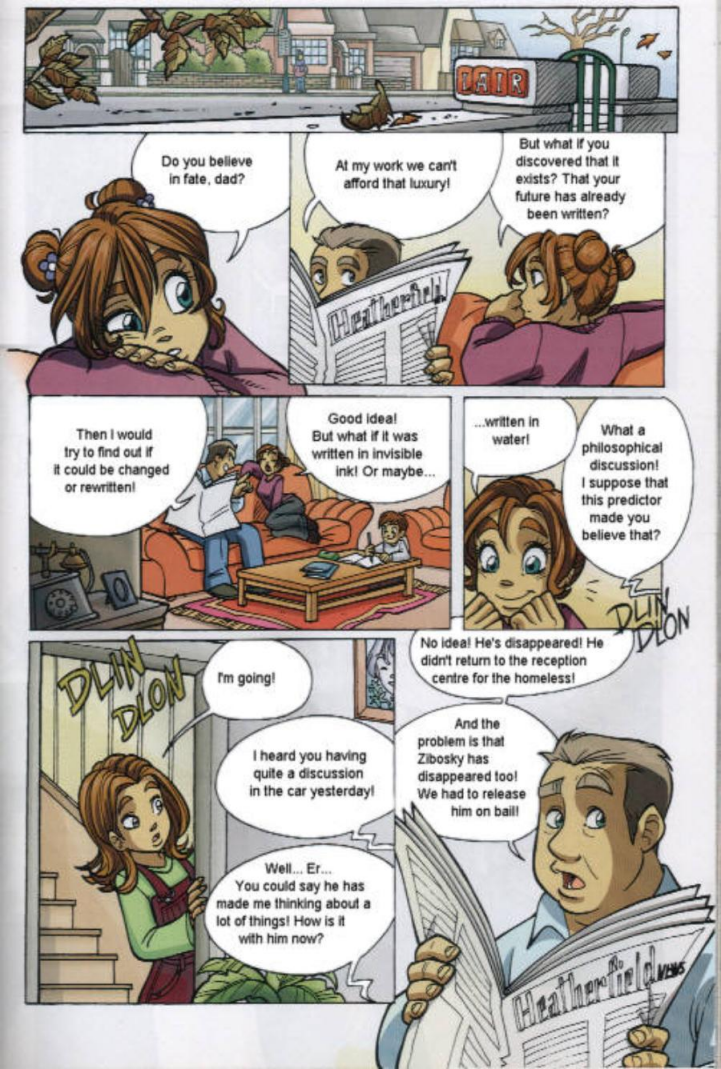
Later, outside the Sheffield Institute...
...And then Will said you could bug off?
Not in those words, but she meant the same!
What was so sensitive Jewell told about her then?
He said that Will shouldn't become too attached to her father, because he would hurt her!
Eww! That sounds really sensitive to me!
And right at the time it doesn't go very well between her and her mother... and with Matt...
"...Of course she defended him! Her father is a nice man! He appears to be like that to me..."
Well, things are going nice, eh? You've blown it at two of your friends! Did you have some news for Taranee too?
Yes, I tried to speak her too right away, but when the bell rang she immediately ran off!
Jewell told something very mysterious about her... He said she had a secret to keep...

"...and she had to make an important decision about it and tell it to the right person!"
I might hope you didn't tell anyone about it!
Don't you worry, mumsy! Your disgusting plans are safe with me!
SCREEK
What's wrong with you, Taranee? I never heard you saying such things before!
I'm only changed... But you obviously didn't notice it at all!
The fact that you've found that dossier about mrs. Vandom in my office doesn't mean that...
You're about to convict the mother of my friend!
Come on! I'm a judge! Her dossier came on my desk and I'm only doing my job!
Don't treat me like a toddler!

Well, wat a great job! You just believe all those mean lies you hear from Wills father! A man you barely know!
How... how dare you! What do you know about this? You're only a child!
CLUNK
What do you think you're doing? SIT DOWN!
Stay here!
You won't dare!
Don't you ever dare to hold me! You have no idea how I'm changed!
Fire...

For a moment flames rush through in the confused mind of a daughter...
They turn the certainties of a mother to ashes...
But the fire dies down quickly... And from the sinters a wish rises up...
Now! right now! Everything Taranee wishes is that fate offers her a gift!
And it looks like fate is listening...
NIGEL!



BAR
Do you believe in fate, dad?
At my work we can't afford that luxury!
But what if you discovered that it exists? That your future has already been written?
Heatherfield
Then I would try to find out if it could be changed or rewritten!
Good idea! But what if it was written in invisible ink! Or maybe...
...written in water!
What a philosophical discussion! I suppose that this predictor made you believe that?
DLIN DLON
DLIN DLON
I'm going!
I heard you having quite a discussion in the car yesterday!
Well... Er... You could say he has made me thinking about a lot of things! How is it with him now?
No idea! He's disappeared! He didn't return to the reception centre for the homeless!
And the problem is that Zibosky has disappeared too! We had to release him on bail!
Heatherfield NEWS

That means that we might miss a witness during the trial against that criminal!
Do you mean that the life of that poor man is in danger?
Hear this! A sure Jewell was at the door and...
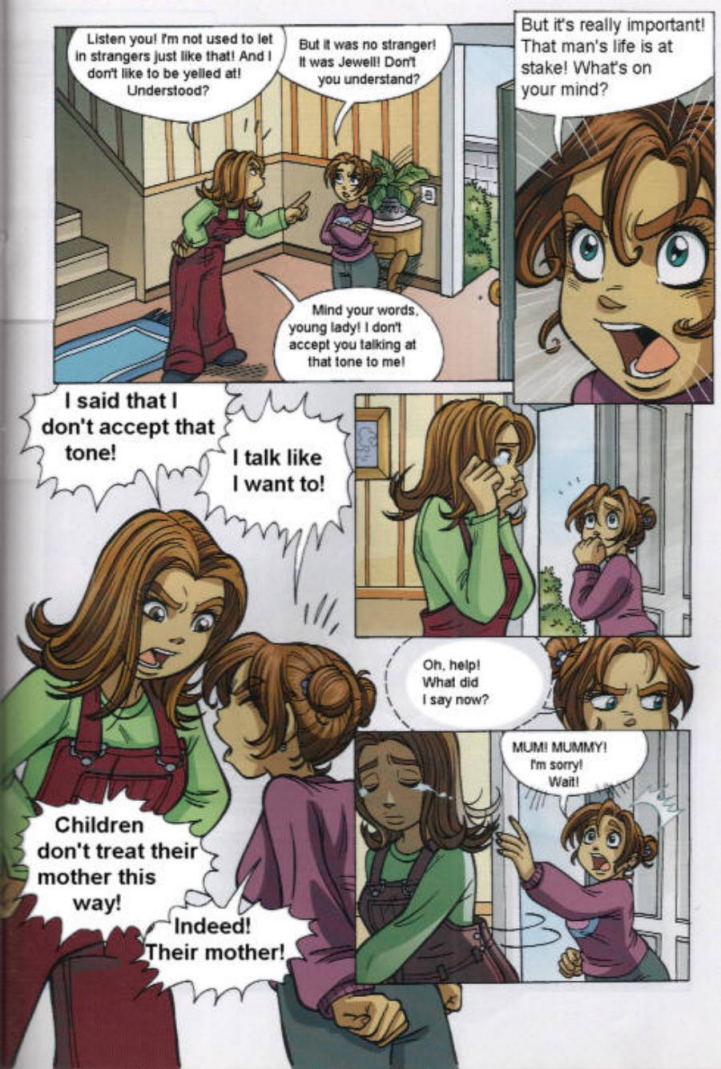
Hey!
I'm going after it! He can never be far!
Well? Can someone tell me what's happening? Who was that man?
You should have let him in! He might have had something important to tell!



Listen you! I'm not used to let in strangers just like that! And I don't like to be yelled at! Understood?
But it was no stranger! It was Jewell! Don't you understand?
Mind your words, young lady! I don't accept you talking at that tone to me!
But it's really important! That man's life is at stake! What's on your mind?
I said that I don't accept that tone!
I talk like I want to!
Oh, help! What did I say now?
MUM! MUMMY! I'm sorry! Wait!
Children don't treat their mother this way!
Indeed! Their mother!

Mum! I...

Didn't I... didn't I always give you what you needed then, Irma? Didn't I do that?

I mean... The fact I'm not your real mother... Is that...

I love you, you know that! We both know that!

At times I'm really awful, uh?

Just like me!

That man actually didn't want something from your father... but something from you!

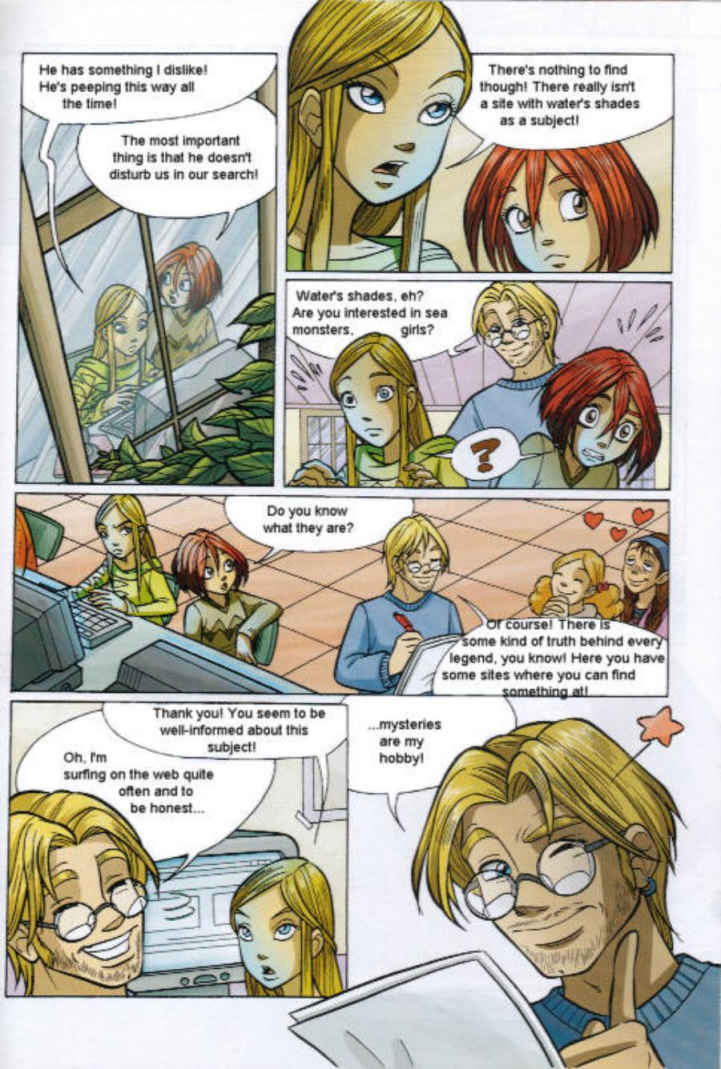
He didn't want to disturb you. He left that book for you!

"He said you would understand it!"
Golden
But I don't understand this at all!
Why did Irma only tell you about this Jewell?
That's what I'm asking myself too! Obviously it's about all of us!
She thought that what he told about me wasn't as heavy as the things he told about you!
But that's not the point!
Suddenly a complete stranger appears who seems to know everything about us! Who is he? Where does he come from? Didn't she ask herself about that?
She says she knows she can trust him, that's all! It's a feeling she has!
Now I told you everything I know! You have to hear the rest from the person in question!
If she has the courage to come to us at least! You must have been quite hard on her!
Er... How are you? Do you want to talk with me or crush me right away?
Get on, smartass! Sit down and stop playing the victim! Your milkshake is getting hot!

And I have to offer my apologies to you! I started skating again, you know!
Really? So you really followed my...
...I mean HIS advice!
Hey, talking about that friend of yours... Hay Lin says you've got something from him to show us!
For sure! Watch this book!
It looks quite old!
It is! It's about sea monsters and other mysterious creatures! Look at this!
What does that red circle around that picture mean?
Jewell has done that! He tried to tell me something with it!
In this chapter a kind of fluid creatures is being discussed! They are called...
...water's shades!

Meanwhile at the Sheffield Institute...
TUMP TUMP
Enter!
Excuse me, mrs. Knickerbocker... If you don't need me anymore today, I will leave now!
Come in for a moment! I want to introduce someone to you!
This is Gideon, our valued concierge!
Nice to meet you!
My dear Gideon, from tomorrow you won't hear anyone complaining about the continuing absence of mr. Bottlom anymore!
Aha! We finally have found a substitute for the informatics lessons!
That's true! My name is Sylla! Ralph Sylla! And believe me...
...I'm eager to start!
Yeah, right on, mister Sylla!

Dear people! As I told mrs. Knickerbocker yesterday...
...I can't wait to start! So I would say... Switch on the screens!
Isn't he great?
And I always thought informatics was boring!
Everything going well out here? Using a search engine isn't that hard, eh?
Piece of cake! We're surfing on the internet for ages!
But talking about engines... Professor, is that speed monster yours?
That old custom? For sure! I refitted it myself!
I can't get any understanding about this new one... What's his name?
Ralph Sylla! He twists the entire class around his finger, but he hasn't convinced me yet!



He has something I dislike! He's peeping this way all the time!
The most important thing is that he doesn't disturb us in our search!
There's nothing to find though! There really isn't a site with water's shades as a subject!
Water's shades, eh? Are you interested in sea monsters, girls?
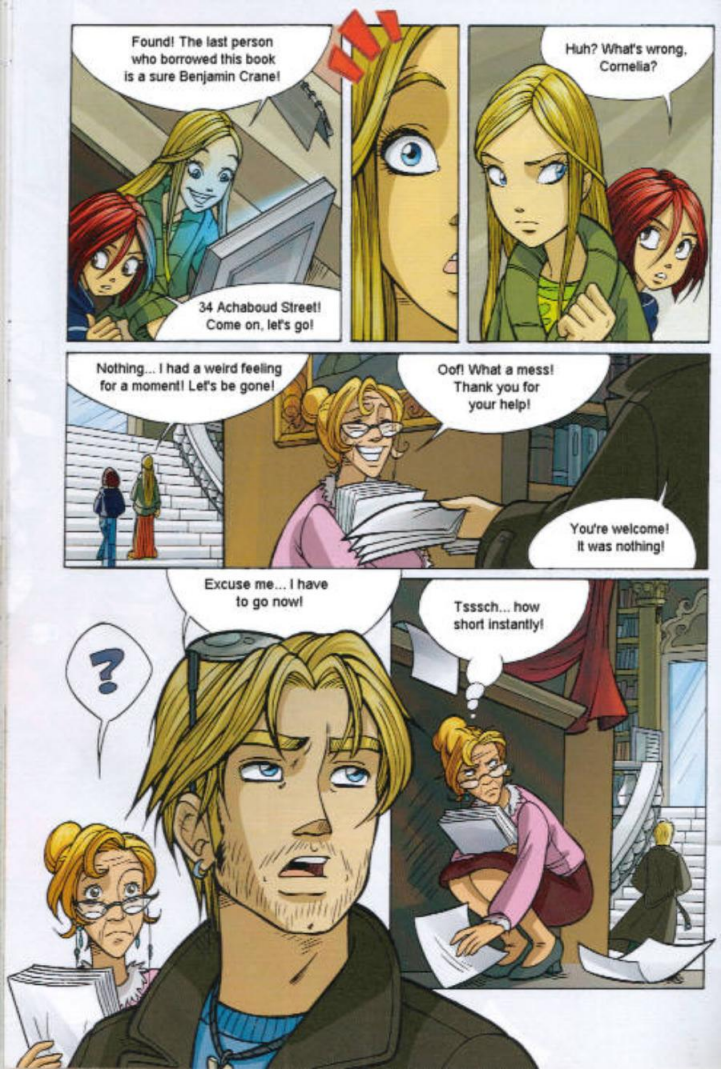
Do you know what they are?
Of course! There is some kind of truth behind every legend, you know! Here you have some sites where you can find something at!
Thank you! You seem to be well-informed about this subject!
Oh, I'm surfing on the web quite often and to be honest...
...mysteries are my hobby!

Later, in the inner yard of the Sheffield Institute...
Well? Found something? tell me!
Not a lot! And besides of that the information isn't quite interesting!
When we're talking about these shades, we mean creatures posessing magical powers...
...which are similar to the elementary spirits in some way!
So it means that those creatures are connected to the four elements, like us... water, fire, earth and air!
These creatures entirely consist of their element! That means that the fire creatures consist of fire, the air creatures are made of air...
Wait a minute! Are you talking about creatures which don't have a body?
More or less! For example, water's shades are barely visible with the naked eye!
"...though some fishermen were claiming they saw them, in the middle of a group of delphins..."
"...fast moving shades with an almost human shape..."

They say the stories about mermaids originate from these observations!
Creatures living in the water... and made of water! Unbelievable!
You better say impossible! We are on Earth, remember? Not in Meridian! That's what I mean!
And why couldn't such magic creatures exist here? Well?
Because I'm using my mind... and not my fantasy!
We do exist too, or am I wrong?
Oh, please! You talk with her, I give up!
But what do you think Jewell tried to tell us when he referred to those water's shades?
Maybe he wanted us to find something else! Look what I found between the book's pages!
A note with the lending date of the library!
Now we really can do some research! It's better than reading legends!

If we ask who's borrowed this book, we might find out where Jewell is!
And then he can tell us how he knows so much about us! Good idea!
Wait a second! We have to find him because he's in danger! Mark Zibosky is looking for him and...
Yes, yes, Irma! We really understand how serious things are...
"...but that doesn't mean that that man doesn't owe us an explanation!"
I'm really sorry, but I'm not qualified to give that kind of information!
It was very kind of you to return this book, but I can't give you the address of the borrower! You know the content of the privacy law...

Well, thanks for nothing, miss Yoghurt! Are all of those librarians that soured?
Did you notice how dusty this place is?
Wouldn't it be a good idea to open the windows?
SLAM
WOOOOOSH
Oh! Oh no!
But Hay Lin! It's nothing for you to do something like this!
It's charity! You yourself said Jewell can be in danger!



Found! The last person who borrowed this book is a sure Benjamin Crane!
34 Achaboud Street! Come on, let's go!
Huh? What's wrong, Cornelia?
Nothing... I had a weird feeling for a moment! Let's be gone!
Oof! What a mess! Thank you for your help!
You're welcome! It was nothing!
Excuse me... I have to go now!
Tsssch... how short instantly!

Not all of Heatherfield is just as cosy and familiar...
The docks for example are not a perfect place for tours...
What a slum! If my parents knew I was here...
I'm surprised the streets over here actually have names!
They're not something to turn up with! Look... All those strange names! Hey, there it is!
Achabout Street! We found it, girls!
Just when you're thinking you've seen the worst of it...
No doorbell! What will we do? Knock?
No, we'll BLOW! When I estimate it well, the door will fall from its hinges right away!

They're standing still! I'm wondering what they are looking for in this deserted place!
Yes?
Er... hello, there! We're looking for mister Benjamin Crane!
That's me! Whadduyuwan?
To begin with, we want you to get aside!
SBAAAM
Oof!
How... how did she do THAT?
I thought you were joking when you said you would blow through the door!
By the way, what's on your mind?
That's not Crane! That man's lying!

"That's one of Zibosky's men! I've seen him at the police office two days ago!"
And can someone explain to me what this gangster is doing here, except for lying down?
We can't ask him that! He's unconscious!
JEWELL!
MMMPF! MMMMPF!
How do you feel? Is everything well?
Yes! Thank you, sweetheart! But... I'm not Jewell!
My name's Crane! Benjamin Crane!

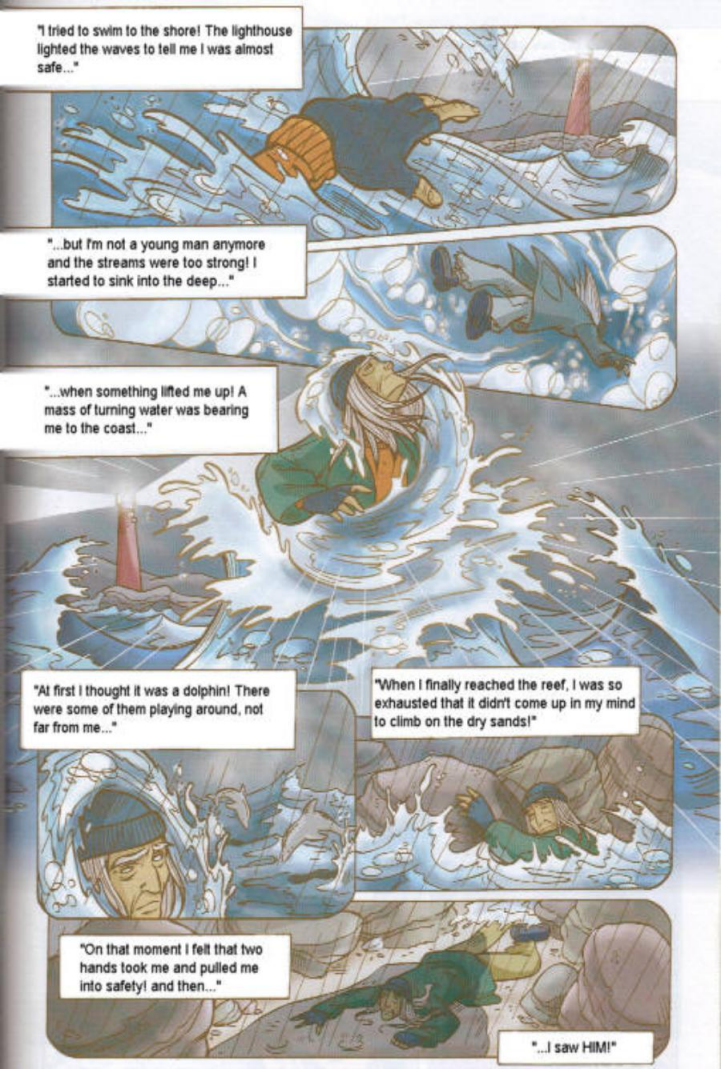
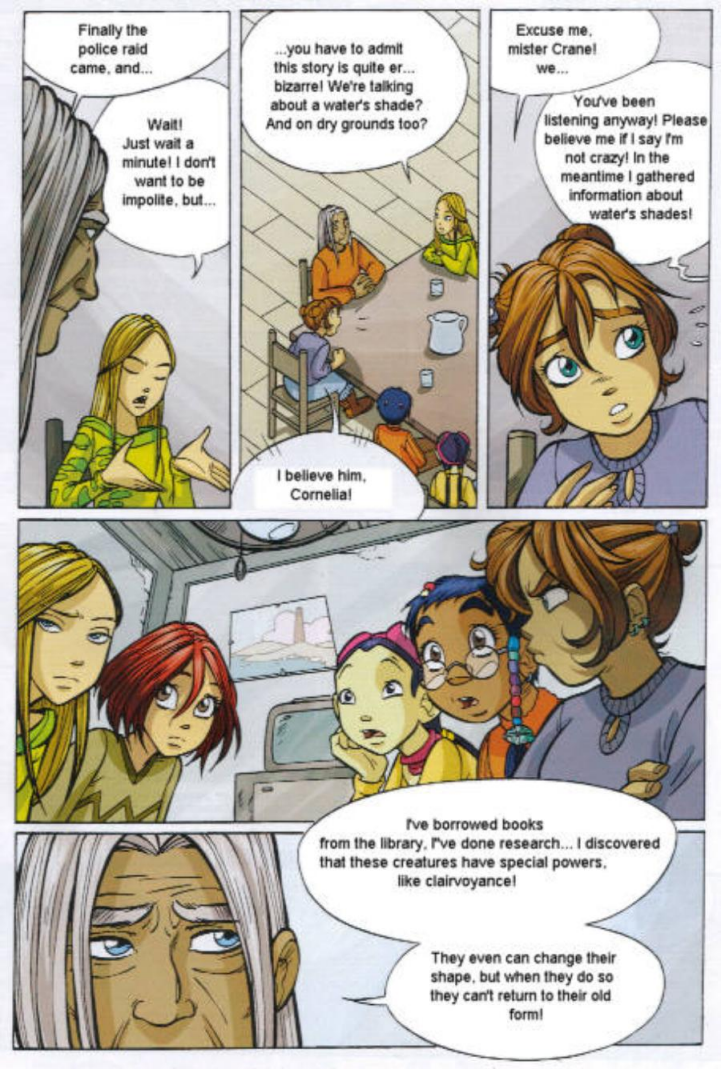
Later, when the crook has been tied up...
I'm a fisherman! That's my work! My life!
It all started just six months ago! I was sailing near Lighthouse Cape and I wasn't really fortunate...
"The sea continued worsening and my boat was in a bad condition. But work had to go on!"
"The waves were getting higher all the time and soon the boat made water! I still remember the coldness of the water! And the darkness! It was ruthless!"



"I tried to swim to the shore! The lighthouse lighted the waves to tell me I was almost safe..."
"...but I'm not a young man anymore and the streams were too strong! I started to sink into the deep..."
"...when something lifted me up! A mass of turning water was bearing me to the coast..."
"At first I thought it was a dolphin! There were some of them playing around, not far from me..."
"When I finally reached the reef, I was so exhausted that it didn't come up in my mind to climb on the dry sands!"
"On that moment I felt that two hands took me and pulled me into safety! and then..."
"...I saw HIM!"

" At each turn of the lighthouses' lights a peculiar appearance turned to be visible, a kind of shade with a vague contour!"
"The apparition became clear when the creature took my appearance!"
"He told me not to be afraid and carried me here! To my home!
But then you're talking about a...
...a water's shade! Indeed! a legendary creature!
Thinking I never believed those tall sailor's stories...
You have to know the shade had no name. When I recovered I decided to call him Jewell!

"Then the predictions came! Jewell showed me the exact spots where I would be lucky to fish at!"
"At first I rented a boat, but soon business was running so well that I could buy a new one!"
"He didn't ask anything in return! All he wanted was to see me happy! He was like an angel... coming from the sea!"
"Unfortunately Mark Zibosky took notice of my luck and it didn't take much time before he found out my secret!"
"He thought Jewell was my twin brother and after he took me as a hostage, he started blackmailing him!"
Predictions for the next future for your life in return!
He used them for his obscure business! Illegal gambling and traffics...



Finally the police raid came, and...
Wait! Just wait a minute! I don't want to be impolite, but...
...you have to admit this story is quite er... bizarre! We're talking about a water's shade? And on dry grounds too?
I believe him, Cornelia!
Excuse me, mister Crane! we...
You've been listening anyway! Please believe me if I say I'm not crazy! In the meantime I gathered information about water's shades!
I've borrowed books from the library, I've done research... I discovered that these creatures have special powers, like clairvoyance!
They even can change their shape, but when they do so they can't return to their old form!

Later, at the door of Crane's home...
Careful! They're coming out!
I know what you think, girls, but that man in there isn't Jewell! I'm sure of that!
If you've seen his eyes at the police station, you would understand...
If you really want it, you can free me!
He knew I was the only one who could help him to return to his old shape!
What are we waiting for then? Let's look for him!

Stop it, Will! Just a short time ago you were quite suspicious... Just as suspicious as I was!
Yes, why have you changed your mind that sudden?
I've never seen his eyes, but I saw the look in those of yours!
Though you did it in a clumsy way, you tried to help us all and that came from your heart!
Clumsy? Me? Mind your words, eh?
So I think the Heart has to do something back!
Did Crane tell where we could find Jewell?
Lighthouse Cape! He obviously spends whole days there, near the lighthouse!
The only problem is that Mark Zibosky knows that too!
Another reason to use teletransportation! Brace yourself, we're leaving!

They are behind those crates for far too long! What are they up to?
A flash of light? What's...
No... This can't be... They... they completely disappeared!
"...then my name isn't Raphael Sylla!"
If this is no mystery...
Okay, oldie! Come outside! We know you are there!

We won't hurt you! We only want to know what the police asked you!
The door's closed on the inside, boss!
Okay, you get what you want! Friendly talking has ended!
SBRAAANG
Up there! On the stairs!
Wait, Me first! Before I leave him in your sweet and capable hands I want to have a talk with him!
Finally, you're here! Your twin brother didn't want to tell me where you were!
But we have our ways to make people talk...
...and we know how to keep them SILENT too!

And I always thought such words were only being said in gangster movies!
?!?
What... what the...
Hi Jewell! I'm happy to see you!
Me too! I knew you would come!
D... don't move! D... don't come closer!
MIKE! ORLANDO!
Relax, Zibosky! You don't want to make me angry, do you?
Are you calling for your crime friends?
Sorry! We are used to deal with worse creeps than you are!

W... who are you?
W... what do you want?
We are the good fairies and we only want you to leave Jewell in peace!
Stay there! Don't...
Look out!
A fraction of a second...
A small wrong step...
Sometimes little is needed to get things go wrong...

Irma's hoping that it's true that Jewell is nothing but a transitory shade...
Because the only way to save him is to give him back what belongs to him!
And to see how water...
...returns to water!

SPLASH
SPLASH
WOOOSH
Hey, how did you find me?
With a bit of luck and putting myself in your shoes!
Are these dolphins always here?
Yes! They're playing at the same spot where Jewell disappeared two days ago!

So you really think that he...
...has returned to his element? Why not? Are you doubting about that?
You saw it yourself though? He changed into water and vanished in the waves!
I know, but it happened so fast!
I've taken today's newspaper for you! There's an article in it about Zibosky's case!
Has Crane made a declaration against our beloved small criminal?
Yep! And that's not all of it! The attorneys are asking for a psychiatric test. They think he's nuts, because he keeps telling that he has seen fairies!
SPLAAASH
Well, doesn't that cheer you up? Usually we would burst out laughing about this!
You won't believe it, but all of this has made me thinking!

You mean Jewells predictions?
"She says she's in a much better mood since she's skating again!"
Yes! I mean... They were useful in a way! Cornelia, for example...
Dinner is ready!
I'm coming!
Caleb! Your face! This picture of you...
Now I know one day I'll be strong enough...
...strong enough to tear it to PIECES!

"Taranee admitted she's got a secret, and she says she knows to who she has to tell it!"
No, Not to Will in any case! She's too vulnerable these days!
The dossier I've seen is about her mother! She'll know what she should do and...
MUM! She... she's here and talks with Susan!
Thanks for the warning, Theresa! In your position this shouldn't have been easy for you!
Thanks to Taranee! She's made me thinking!
She behaves herself so strange these days! Sometimes I hardly recognize her...
My daughter and I aren't on the same wavelength very often!

And still... I don't want to think about being separated from her! Only the thought about it...
Your husband takes a legal proceeding to get the guardianship over Will, that's true... But he hasn't won yet! After all I'm the judge who hears the case!

"And Will? How is she?"

For as far as I can see is Will the only one who didn't believe what Jewell had to tell!
I can't blame her for that!
Matt looks getting further and further away from her, while her father comes closer!
Maybe Jewell was wrong about him! Maybe he won't hurt her!
I hope you're right!
And then we've got you! He hadn't anything to talk about you, eh?
Well, to be honest he said something, but I don't know if...
Oh no! You don't do that to me! Tell it!
Well... after my mother died my father remarried with Anna! I was only three years old then!
Anna is my mother! The best mother I could have wished! but I... I...
I think I understand! go further!

That's not a prediction! That's calling fate upon you!
Oh no! He didn't mean I would remain as an old spinster or something like that!
Well... Jewell said it wasn't easy to me to get really attached to people! Maybe he's right...
He even promised me he personally would tell me when my knight in shining armour will arrive!
Don't look at me like that! Why do you think I'm still going here? I still hear his voice!
You have to believe me, Hay Lin! If you close your eyes and listen well, you'll hear him too!
"It's the voice of the sea!"
